Announcement regarding the Open Asian Championships 2022, Chiangmai, Thailand

Despite the improved pandemic situation and normalization of sports life in many parts of the world, some parts are still affected by travel restrictions.

Based on the expected low participant numbers from Asia, after consultations with the AMF Board and the local organizer we have together decided to cancel the Open Asian Minigolf Championships 2022. We are aware that several players from other continents were eager to participate in this event, but this championship is in the first place the Asian Championship. It makes little sense to organize it if some of the main Asian minigolf nations are not able to participate.

The next Open Asian Championships are scheduled for 2024 and AMF has in the cancellation letter announced the 2024 championships open for applications.
